

I am very pleased with NJ and their commitment to helping citizens with their right to privacy in their home. My family was repeatedly harrassed by telemarketers during the most unappropriated times. My husband and I both work and have a right to be home and not be bothered during our time with our family. Since the do not call bill was passed in NJ, it has been wonderful. I fully support what the state did and I hope that it will remain in effect.